

would by an angry bull; it is not for a man of sense to ute the road with such an animal. (To T. J. Randolph J. C. V., 390.)

ORPORATIONS.—The Senate received yesterday a bill from representatives incorporating a company for Roosevelt's Der mines in Jersey. This is under the sweeping clause of Constitution, and supported by the following pedigree of issities. Congresses are authorized to defend the country; s are necessary for that defense; copper is necessary for s; mines are necessary to produce copper; companies are :ssary to work mines: and "this is the house that Jack 1." (To R. Livingston, 1800. F. VII, 446.)

JRPORATIONS.—It has always been denied by the Republican imocratic] party in this country that the Constitution had en vlie power of incorporation to Congress. On the estab- imeit of the bank of the United States, this was the great >und :>n which that establishment was combated; and the ly prerailing supported it only on the argument of its being inciderf; to the power given them for raising money. On s grounl. it has been acquiesced in, and will probably be ain acquiesced in as subsequently confirmed by public opinion. it in no oher instance have they ever exercised the power incorporaton out of this district, of which they are the linary legislature. (To Dr. Mease, 1809. C. V., 412.)

CORPORATIONS.—It ends as might have been expected in the in of its (Engand's) people, but this ruin will fall heaviest,

 it ought to fall, on that hereditary aristocracy. * * * I pe we shall talo, warning from the example of England and ash in its birth he aristocracy of our moneyed corporations
 lich dare already to challenge our Government to trial, and d defiance to the laws of our country. (To George Logan,

!
 i
 6
 .
 F
 .
 X
 .
 ,
 6
 9
 .
)

CORRESPONDENCE.—A right of a free correspondence between tizen and citizen on \heir joint interests, whether public or •ivate and under whatever laws these interests arise (to wit, : the State, of Congress, of France, Spain or Turkey), is a itural right, it is not the, gift of any municipal law
 either of